

Audition Information & Links

Twelfth Night

By William Shakespeare

adapted by Jessica Vanek

This fall students ages 13-18 (grades 6-12) from the Coll Street Players bring us an abridged production of William Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. After a shipwreck separates Viola from her twin brother Sebastian, Viola decides to disguise herself as a boy in order to work for the Duke Orsino, whom she falls in love with. However when Orsino sends Viola to court the Countess Olivia for him, Olivia falls for Viola in disguise instead! And when Viola's twin brother shows up, looking exactly like Viola in disguise, a flood of mistaken identities and hilarious love triangles ensue.

1. Dates, Audition Information & More!
2. Roles
3. Audition Registration Form
4. Signup for a time!
5. Audition Form - fill out in advance
6. Callback Sides

Contact Kirsten Boyd with questions, or if you are having trouble accessing the linked documents kirsten@firstprotestant.com

Auditions

Auditions are open to actors current grades 6-12

Monday, August 3rd from 5:30-7:00pm

Tuesday, August 4th from 5:30-7:00pm

Callbacks on Thursday, August 6th from 5:30-7:30pm

Rehearsals

Tuesdays from 5:30-7:30pm

Thursdays from 5:30-7:30pm

Various Saturdays from 9am-12pm

Performances

Friday, November 6th at 7:00

Saturday, November 7th at 2:00 and 7:00

Sunday, November 8th at 2:00

www.collstreetplayers.com